We will contact you as soon as possible about payment details. As we cannot accept credit cards due to staff working off campus, payment will be via the pay bills feature of online banking for your financial institution.

Note: At this time, all CAJ bursaries have been claimed. If any bursary recipient cancels, the next eligible person who has paid their fees will be awarded the bursary and will receive a refund of the fees. We cannot hold a space without payment of fees in anticipation of a possible cancellation. CAJ member discounts are not limited and remain available.

- I would like to apply for a CAJ low income/student/freelance bursary, if one becomes available.
- I would like to apply for a CAJ bursary for equity-seeking groups (see main data school page for details), if one becomes available.
- I am a CAJ member current to at least June 21 (membership will be confirmed).

CAJ discount cannot be combined with a bursary to produce a larger discount.
